

The story of the enchanted prince begins in a kingdom far, far away. In that kingdom there is a great palace where the king and his three beautiful daughters live. The princesses are all very beautiful but the youngest daughter is the most beautiful of all and the king loves her very much. She has long fair hair and blue eyes and she is tall and slim. A little white dog is her friend and he follows her everywhere she goes.

1. Look at the picture and say how many people do you see in it ?

- A) three B) many C) five
D) four E) much

2. Where are the candles ?

- A) on the wall B) on the chair C) near the dog
D) in the tree E) in the king's hands

3. The king a book.

- A) is reading B) is writing C) is seeing
D) is watching E) is playing

4. The dog is sitting near the

- A) king B) queen
C) youngest daughter D) oldest daughter
E) window

5. A king's daughter is a

- A) son B) prince C) queen
D) princess E) boy

Near the palace there is a big forest with tall trees. There is also an old, deep well full of water. The princess comes here every day with her dog to play with her favourite toy: a little golden ball. Here they are! The dog is running after the ball and jumping around happily. She is happy. She is looking around her at the beautiful forest and the clear water of the well. But ohh...! The golden ball falls into the water and disappears.

6. The princess to the forest every day.

- A) is going B) go C) does
D) goes E) are going

7. There are beautiful flowers in the

- A) palace B) well C) water D) hand E) grass

8. The princess likes to play a golden ball.

- A) to B) at C) with D) in E) the

9. any water in the well?

- A) There is B) Am I C) Is there
D) Are E) Are there

10. Does the ball disappear?

- A) No, it doesn't. B) Yes, she does. C) No.
D) Yes, it doesn't E) Yes, it does.

The princess is so sad now. She sits near the well and she starts crying. She doesn't know what to do to get her ball back. Her beautiful blue eyes are full of tears. Suddenly, she hears a voice:

'Don't cry, beautiful princess, because I can help you'.

She looks around and doesn't see anyone. There is only a little green frog near the well. The frog looks at her and says again:

'I can bring your ball back if you promise to do something for me, too.'

11. The girl is crying because she is
 A) happy B) lost C) sad D) nice E) alone
12. Who is talking to the princess?
 A) a man B) a girl C) a princess
 D) a frog E) a squirrel
13. The frog wants the girl to make a
 A) well B) ball C) promise D) wish E) help
14. There is a squirrel the tree.
 A) under B) on C) near D) behind E) in
15. 'I want my ball', says the princess.
 A) golden B) frog C) back
 D) yellow E) beautiful

The princess is so surprised that she doesn't know what to do. She looks at the frog and thinks about her toy and then asks the little frog what it wants.

'Do you promise to take me to your palace and be my friend? Will you let me stay with you, eat with you and sleep in your bed?'

'I promise', says the princess quickly.

The frog jumps into the well and he comes back with the ball. When the princess sees it, she takes it and runs to the palace, leaving the frog behind.

16. does the princess run? To the palace.
 A) Who B) Where C) What
 D) When E) Why
17. The princess the frog with her.
 A) takes B) don't take
 C) take D) doesn't take E) doesn't takes
18. You can see the palace
 A) in the right corner B) in the mirror
 C) in the well
 D) in the left corner E) in the middle
19. The princess has
 A) a long coat B) a small bag C) a big ball
 D) a short dress E) a crown
20. Which sentence is not true?
 A) The princess wants her ball back.
 B) The princess leaves the ball in the grass.
 C) The frog brings the ball back.
 D) The princess runs back to the palace.
 E) The princess leaves the frog near the well.

At the palace, the king and his family are sitting at the table, eating. The princess tells them about the ball and the frog and everybody listens. Suddenly, there is a knock on the door and they hear the voice of the frog:

'Open the door, princess. You must keep your promise. You must take me with you, sit with me and give me food. I am hungry and I want to eat.'

The princess doesn't want to let the frog in but the king tells her she must.

21. The king is
- A) having breakfast B) having dinner
C) having lunch
D) having supper E) having a shower
22. The princess is
- A) crying B) laughing
C) playing with her dog
D) talking to the king E) having dinner
23. The frog doesn't say:
- A) open the door princess
B) you must take me with you C) I want to eat
D) you must sit with me E) don't give me food
24. What is not on the table?
- A) a vase with flowers B) a bowl of fruit
C) plates
D) forks and knives E) a white dog
25. Which sentence is true ?
- A) The king has not a bear.
B) The frog is hungry.
C) The princess doesn't tell anything.
D) Nobody listens to the princess.
E) The princess wants to let the frog in.

As soon as she opens the door, the frog jumps in and asks for food. He jumps on the table and starts eating from the girl's plate. She looks at him with disgust and she can't eat anything. But the frog doesn't care about that. He eats roast chicken, the fried fish and the pudding and then he takes an apple and some grapes. He looks happy and satisfied.

26. In the picture the princess looks
- A) tired B) disgusted C) sad D) happy
E) calm
27. What isn't there on the table?
- A) fruit B) fried fish C) boiled chicken
D) pudding E) a bottle of water
28. The frog starts
- A) to cry B) to dance on the table
C) eating from the girl's plate
D) to speak with the king E) to drink
29. You can see some in the picture.
- A) children B) curtains C) books
D) flowers E) horses
30. The frog doesn't
- A) jump on the table
B) care about the girl's reaction
C) eat from the plate
D) ask for food E) look happy

'I'm tired", says the frog. 'Now take me with you to your bedroom and show me where the bed is. I can't wait to sleep.' The princess doesn't want to touch him because his skin is cold and wet but the king tells her she must keep her promise. She takes him with two fingers and puts him in a corner of the bedroom but he isn't happy with this.

'Put me in your bed, don't let me on the floor. This is not comfortable at all.'

That is too much for the princess. She takes him again and throws him into the wall. But what a miracle! He suddenly turns into a tall, handsome prince.

31. How does the princess feel?
 A) tired B) angry C) happy D) sleepy
 E) sad
32. The frog's is wet.
 A) skin B) legs C) hands D) fur E) scales
33. The floor is not comfortable the frog.
 A) to B) at C) with D) for E) of
34. The King tells the princess to
 A) run out B) go to bed C) keep her promise
 D) throw the frog out E) forget about the frog
35. There is a above the prince.
 A) bookshelf B) bookcase C) book
 D) books E) booklet

The princess is so surprised she can't say a word. The prince tells her that a bad witch turned him into a frog and that she was the only person who could save him. They go to the king together and tell him they want to get married. They have a wonderful wedding party. Then the princess says good bye to her sisters and her parents and they all wish her happiness. The prince takes the king's daughter to his kingdom in a golden carriage. They all live happily ever after.

36. The horses have beautiful
 A) manes B) tail C) feathers D) fur E) eye
37. Who turned the prince into a frog?
 A) a fairy B) the princess
 C) the king D) a witch E) an elf
38. Only could turn the frog back into a prince.
 A) the witch B) the king C) a fairy
 D) the princess E) an old woman
39. Where does the prince take the king's daughter ?
 A) to the sea B) to his secret house
 C) to his kingdom D) to church E) to his cabin
40. The prince's carriage
 A) is bad B) has one wheel
 C) is golden D) is happy
 E) is silver